DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' response, which included amendment to claim 1, cancellation of claim 3 and addition of new claim 10, filed on 8/29/2007, is made of record. Claims 1, 4-8 and 10 are now pending.

In view of applicants' amendment, the prior art rejections and claim objections made in the previous office action have been obviated. However, the following new grounds of rejections are applied to pending claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
> (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sun et al., US 2004/0019063.

Sun et al., teaches several bicyclic compounds which include instant compounds as intermediates. See pages 2-3, formula Ih and the definition of various variable groups. Note the G choices are same as instant g choices. See pages 3-16 for various preferred embodiments and process of making. See pages 24-60 for examples 1-60. Especially see example 9, step 9D shown in page 31, paragraph 0396.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 4, 5 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Sun et al., US 2004/0019063.

Teaching of Sun et al., as discussed in the above 102 rejection is incorporated herein. As noted above, Sun et al., teaches several bicyclic compounds which include instant compounds as intermediates. See pages 2-3, formula Ih and the definition of various variable groups. Note the G choices are same as instant g choices. See pages 3-16 for various preferred embodiments and process of making. See pages 24-60 for examples 1-60. Especially see example 9, step 9D shown in page 31, paragraph 0396. See also examples 54-56.

Sun et al., did not exemplify all compounds with various G choices. However, Sun et al., teaches the equivalency of the exemplified compounds with those generically claimed for formula Ih. Thus, it would be obvious to one trained in the art to make the compounds of formula Ih by using example 9D as guidance in view of the equivalency teaching outlined above.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(l)(1) and § 706.02(l)(2).

Teaching of Sun et al., as discussed in the above 102 rejection is incorporated herein.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-8 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
